

Ramanambonona Ambinintsoa

Ph.D. in Economics

Antananarivo, Madagascar · ✉ ambinintsoa.uat.ead2@gmail.com · ☎ +261 34 07 62 718 · 🌐 ramanambonona.github.io

Profile

Economist, lecturer-researcher, and public administration officer specializing in public economics, public finance, econometrics, computational economics, economics of crime, and law and economics. Professional background bridging higher education, academic research, and public policy decision-making support.

Education

2020–2024	Ph.D. in Economics, University of Antananarivo Dissertation: The importance of stochastic approaches and innovative models in deterrence economics: the case of illegal activities . Awarded Highest Honors with Jury Commendations (Mention très honorable avec félicitations du jury).
2012–2013	M.Sc. in Development, Protected Area Management, Senghor University of Alexandria European Union Mobility Scholarship Recipient.
2010–2011	M.Sc. in Environmental Economics, Université Bordeaux IV Ranked 2 nd in class; graduated with Honors (Mention Bien).
2006–2009	B.Sc. / M.1 in Economics (Maîtrise), University of Antananarivo Track focused on macroeconomics and quantitative modeling.

Academic Teaching Experience

Jan. 2026–Present	Lecturer, Department of Economics, Faculty of EGS, University of Antananarivo Econometrics I (B.Sc. Year 3, Mathematical Economics Track); Game Theory II (M.Sc. Year 2 Research, Core Curriculum).
2025–Present	Lecturer, Department of Economics, University of Itasy Microeconomics I & II, Macroeconomics I & II, Demography.
2025–Present	Lecturer, École Normale Supérieure, University of Antananarivo Inferential Statistics, Advanced Microeconomics, Advanced Macroeconomics, Public Economics.
2025–Present	Lecturer, Department of Economics, Institute of Higher Education in Social Sciences, University of Antsirabe Microeconomics I, Microeconomics II.
2012–2014	Instructor, National Institute of Administrative Training – Statistics Division / ENSEA, Abidjan, Côte d’Ivoire Microeconomics.

Professional Experience

Nov. 2024–Present	Senior Economist, Directorate General of the Treasury, Ministry of Economy and Finance Periodic preparation of economic outlook notes and public finance assessments; compilation of government finance statistics; analytical contributions to macroeconomic studies and forecasting exercises.
2022–2024	Head of the Resources and General Affairs Service, Directorate of the National Printing Office Administrative and financial management, personnel career and training management, logistics and asset security, delegated secondary authorizing officer for the auxiliary budget.

2021–2022	External Loan Disbursements Officer, Directorate of Public Debt Processing disbursement requests, monitoring loan concessionality, donor relations management, public debt service administration.
2013–2021	Division Chief, Current Operations, Directorate of Financial Operations Foreign exchange regulation, detection of exchange control offenses, ex-post auditing of export proceeds repatriation.

Publications Conferences

- Ramanambonona, A. & Razafindravonona, J. (2023), “Macroeconomic Implications of Corruption: The Case of Madagascar”, Revue Française d’Économie et de Gestion, vol. 4, no. 7. <https://www.revuefreg.fr/index.php/home/article/view/1187>
- Ramanambonona, A. (2024), “An Economic Approach to Deterring Foreign Exchange Offenses: Evidence from Madagascar”, Journal of Economic Criminology, vol. 3. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.jeconc.2024.100049>
- Razafindravonona, J. & Ramanambonona, A. (2026), “End of tax exemptions on bank interest income: a DSGE evaluation for Madagascar”, Cogent Economics & Finance, vol. 14, no. 1, <https://doi.org/10.1080/23322039.2026.2707790>.
- Rasoloarimanana, H. N. & Ramanambonona, A. (2026), “Lemur Bond and Biodiversity Finance in Madagascar: Pricing, Impact Dynamics, and Stochastic Resilience”, Journal of Economics & Development, forthcoming.
- Conference Presentations: i) 11th Annual Conference of the French Association of Law and Economics (AFED) (Aix-Marseille University, Oct. 7–9, 2026); ii) 1st International Conference on Law & Economics (New Delhi, Nov. 12–13, 2022); iii) 19th Annual Conference of the German Law & Economics Association (Nancy, July 7–8, 2022).

Certifications, Skills Languages

- Certifications: Gender-Sensitive Economic Policies (IDEP, 2024); Data Processing with RStudio (AUF, 2022); Financial and Disbursement Management (AfDB, 2022); Foreign Exchange Risk Management (2016); Regional Integration (IMF-ATI, 2016); Fiscal Policy and Macroeconomic Management (IMF-ICD, 2015).
- Skills: Economic and Econometric Modeling; Economics of Crime; Law and Economics; Public Finance; Python, $\text{\LaTeX}$, R/RStudio, HTML/CSS, React.js, Reveal.js.
- Languages: Malagasy (Native), French (Full Professional Proficiency / Working Language), English (Professional Working Proficiency).